8 Harbour Dues

It is the responsibility of the owner or skipper of any vessel brought within the jurisdiction of Hayle Harbour to pay appropriate harbour dues.

Harbour dues will be charged at the daily rate for every day a vessel is in the harbour, unless arrangements are made with the Harbour Office to pay on an annual, monthly or weekly basis.

Failure to pay Harbour dues may result in vessels being impounded until all outstanding dues have been paid.

Hayle Harbour Act Part IV Paragraph 43 states "If the owner of any vessel shall at any time evade, or attempt to evade, payment of any charges payable by such owner to the Company at the time when the same shall become due and payable, he shall be liable to pay to the Company a sum of £20 or a sum equal to three times the amount of such charges (whichever shall be the greater), which sum shall be a debt due to the Company."
